Baseball League Annual Meeting

By OUT-CURVE

The annual meeting of the South Australian Baseball League was held last night in the Chamber of Manufactures Building. The financial statement disclosed a satisfactory position, with a credit balance of £99 8/.

Regret was expressed at the loss of two stalwarts of the game in Messrs. P. A. Ohlstrom and R. Ewers. Two present-day players who passed away since the conclusion of last season were Mr. Ross Power, of the C.Y.M.S. Club, and Mr. Murray Horwood, of Peterborough. Prominent baseball families also suffered bereavement by the deaths of Mrs. V. Richardson, Mrs. J. Burton, and Mrs. R. Grideoake. The league extended its sympathy to the relatives.

Officers elected—Patron, Mr. N. A. Claxton; president, Mr. F. S. Mann; chairman, Mr. C. S. Catt; hon. secretary, Mr. G. M. Martin; hon. treasurer, Mr. A. J. Bartlett; hon. assistant secretary, Mr. R. C. Scott; minute secretary, Mr. H. J. Daw; hon. auditors, Messrs. J. B. Stephens and F. L. Hayter; hon. solicitor, Mr. M. C. Kriewaldt.

The first delegates' meeting will be held at the Exchange Hotel on Tuesday, April 1, when the number of teams to compete in the various grades during the coming season will be decided.
