

PAUL BEGG

Sporting Achievements

Commenced playing baseball at the Prospect Primary School in Adelaide.

Played baseball for the:

Prospect Baseball Club 1965-1968,

Norths Night Baseball Club 1966 and 1967

Waratah Baseball Club, Darwin from 1968 to 1972.

Northern Territory in 1970 and 1972.

Northern Districts Baseball Club 1973 - 1974

Umpired over 3500 games including over 150 International matches numerous Claxton Shield and Australian Baseball League matches over a period of 27 years.

Selected as an International Baseball Umpire to officiate at the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games and officiated in the Gold Medal game

Team Manager Australian Baseball Team at 1988 Seoul Olympics.

Australian Umpire Intercontinental Cup Sydney 1999.

Australian Umpire 1981 World Youth Series, Newark Ohio USA.

Australian Umpire 1984 World Friendship Series Kindersley Canada

Asian Baseball Federation Series, Perth 1985.

Awarded Australian National Official of the Year 2000 for Baseball.

Awarded International Baseball Umpire of the Year by the IBAF in 2000.

Awarded Australian Sports Medal in the year 2000 by the

PAUL BEGG

Commonwealth Government.

Life Member of the Baseball Umpires Association of South Australia.

Life Member of the South Australian Baseball League Inc.

1986-87 - ABF. Director, Chairman finance committee, Director of Umpires,

Photo: Paul Begg 2008